

Cairn Energy in India factsheet

A 20-year investment in India where Cairn Energy was a model corporate citizen and created a legacy asset which is seen as an example of what can be achieved through partnerships and foreign direct investment

Cairn Energy first invested in India in the 1990s when it became one of the first international companies to participate in the country's oil and gas industry

Cairn Energy helped to transform India's oil and gas industry with the discovery of the Mangala oil field in Rajasthan in January 2004

It was one of the biggest ever hydrocarbon discoveries in India and was quickly followed by the additional Bhagyam and Aishwarya oil discoveries nearby

200+ 40

operated wells in India 1996-2011

significant oil and gas discoveries onshore and offshore India

We created value in India and the communities that we worked in

40%
Barmer district of Rajasthan now has an average income 40% higher than the national average and is the second largest contributor to Rajasthan's GDP.

~ $6 billion
invested in projects in India

+US$20billion
revenues generated for the state and national government through Cairn Energy's discoveries

A culture of working responsibly delivering lasting and social economic benefits for India and the communities we worked in

16,000
employees involved in construction of Rajasthan oil field development

> $8 million
invested in community projects

> 3,000
people trained in business skills

Cairn Energy is supported by strong, long term financial investors

Cairn Energy is one of Europe's leading independent oil and gas exploration and development companies and has an international blue-chip shareholder base.

Around 60% of investors are based in the UK, with 30% in the US and the remainder in Europe and the Rest of the World.

Supported by blue chip global shareholders

Track record of successful project execution from discovery to development

Cambay Basin
Discovery to development 28 months

Rajasthan
Discovery to first oil in 5 years

A 20-year investment in India where Cairn Energy was a model corporate citizen and created a legacy asset

Mangala, Bhagyam and Aishwariya fields - major discoveries in the Rajasthan block have gross ultimate oil recovery of > 1 billion bbls

Ravva production ~ 230 mmbbls

KG Basin proved and probable hydrocarbon 480 mmbbls